FACTSHEET 29th May 2020

IN TODAY'S INVESTMENT CLIMATE, THERE ARE A NUMBER OF PRESSING CONCERNS FACING THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING INCOME: LOW DIVIDEND YIELDS, INTEREST RATES, FALLING REAL ESTATE YIELDS AND UNCERTAIN BOND MARKETS.

GBP Dividend Reinvestment B Shares

In this chart we compare the fund to the Stoxx 600 and the BI Global Oil Majors index, against the Rudolf Wolff Income Fund GBP B Shares Dividend Reinvestment. As can be seen all oil related stocks have been extraordinarily depressed in the current price environment and, given the Fund's slight over-weighting in that sector, this has held back the recovery of the fund versus broader equities. However, we believe these prices do not represent the very low default risk present and instead show the considerable potential for uplift in the coming months.

As at 29th May 2020 data quoted represents past performance; does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance of the Fund may be lower or higher than the performance quoted. Data for the Fund shown are Net of Charges 1/10/19 to 29/5/20.

Fund Commentary

We continued to observe better-than-expected results and trading updates from our obligors in May, and the abrupt upward move in the oil price gave a big boost to our only E&P bondholding. The other main contributor to May's performance was the Consumer Finance sector, a sector which was particularly badly affected in the March downturn and which has been much slower to recover than our frontline Financials holdings. With the majority of bonds in the portfolio still trading at big discounts to Par we reiterate our view that there is plenty of room for further recovery.

Portfolio Strategy

Invest in a weighted portfolio of income bearing financial instruments, preference shares and debt instruments issued by bank's, building societies and insurance/assurance groups, as well as general corporate debt. The Funds Bond strategy is designed to produce an attractive rate of income whilst maintaining the underlying asset value of investment. It may possibly suit those of your clients who are looking for higher returns than currently being offered by standard bank or building society deposit accounts. The income is distributed bi-annually, at the end of March and September. Investors may elect to have the income reinvested. The Fund does not at present utilise any leverage but may use limited leverage in the future. Currently approximately 69% of the Funds bond portfolio is in GBP issues, 28% in USD, and 3% in SEK.
